

Our Musicians: Judy Blee, keyboard &
Dale Orris, trumpet

Judy holds a B. S. in Mus. Ed from Susquehanna University and a M. Music from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music. She is a retired music educator, having taught 37 years in the Lewisburg Area School District. Since retiring from a permanent church music position, Judy is very active as an organ substitute in area churches. Also a trumpeter, she is a founding member of the former Buffalo Valley Brass. She is a member of the Penn Central Wind Band and the Milton Community Band. Her professional memberships include American Guild of Organists and Sigma Alpha Iota (Professional Music Fraternity).

Dale holds an undergraduate degree in Music Education from Susquehanna University and a Master's Degree in Trumpet Performance from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music. He is a former Music Educator in the Lewisburg Area School District and has served as principal trumpet of the Williamsport Symphony since 1995. In the past, he has toured as lead and jazz trumpeter with the Glenn Miller Orchestra and the Buddy Rich Big Bands. He has performed with great artists such as Manhattan Transfer, Natalie Cole, Mannheim Steamroller, Aretha Franklin, The Temptations, Bill Watrous and many others. He presently teaches trumpet at Bucknell University in Lewisburg, PA, and Lycoming College in Williamsport, PA.

Music for Meditation and Candlelight Night Prayers

11 November 2018

“Thin places,” in Celtic spirituality, are where ordinary reality and God’s holiness meet... where the veil between heaven and earth seems transparent. A thin place is anywhere our hearts are opened... The Celts perceived the entire world as saturated with the glory of God. Though every place is potentially a thin place, we have to stop, look and listen... Expect to hear God’s voice. Expect that God will touch you. It happens. Be attentive. Somehow, somewhere, during your worship experience, expect God.
